Week 3

What We're Studying

- *Understanding multiplication (not just memorizing facts)
- *Understanding the relationship between multiplication and division
- *Mental math strategies (double-digit adding/subtracting)
- *Writing our true stories
- *Creating our best learning environment
- *Paul Revere

CONVERSATION STARTERS

- ✓ What is the relationship between division and multiplication?
- ✓ What are factors?
- ✓ What are some ways I can represent factors?
- ✓ What are some mental math strategies I can use to solve problems?
- ✓ How can I find things to write about?
- ✓ What role did Paul Revere have in our nation's history?
- ✓ What are some of his character traits?
- ✓ Who do you know that has some of the same traits?

REMINDERS

- If your child still needs an agenda, please send in $10 as soon as possible
- All students need 4 or 5 composition books or spiral notebooks
- Fundraiser due Wed., Aug. 19
- Spirit Night @ Blue Agave, Tues., Aug. 18
5:00-10:00

I HAVE STARTED WRITING BEHAVIOR NOTES HOME IN THE AGENDAS, AND STUDENTS WILL ALSO BE WRITING IMPORTANT REMINDERS. PLEASE REVIEW AND SIGN YOUR CHILD'S AGENDA EVERY EVENING.
THANK YOU

CLASS NEEDS

- ✓ Chart paper, rolls of printing paper, any large pieces of white paper, etc. (used daily)
- ✓ Composition books or spiral notebooks
- ✓ Scissors (student)
- ✓ Small baskets, buckets (for storing glue sticks, scissors, etc.)
- ✓ Playground equipment (jump ropes, balls, sidewalk chalk, etc.)

- The newsletter will be sent home every Monday for the next month or so. Then, it will be sent every other Monday.
- A Math homework sheet will be sent home every Monday and will be due the following Monday. It's purpose is to provide a continuous, spiral review/preview of skills. Please, do not do the homework for your child. It will be checked for accuracy, but not given as a grade. I will use it to help guide my instruction based on your child's needs. So, I need for them to attempt all problems, even though we may not have studied the skill yet. Thank you for your understanding.
- Students should read each evening for at least 25 minutes. Media check-outs will begin soon.
